“ We will miss you, William Bill. You have been a family member for years and years. You thought our family a little weird when you first encountered us, but I think you came to love us...we loved you. You became such a part of our family in Florida and even though miles and miles separated us eventually, you remained part of our hearts. You always will. Rest in peace, our dear friend. You will be missed. Bless you, Analeta, for the care and love and support you gave to our friend. As his wife for the past many years, you gave to him a love and family that he cherished and needed. Our prayers and thoughts are with you always.
