“ I want to extend my sympathies to my dear friend, Marcella in the passing of her husband and to Daryld and Kevin in the passing of your father. Marcella graduated Castlewood, SD high school in 1960 and attended all twelve grades with me. She and I and my twin sister, Marlene, were together often. She and Bill attended our fifty year class reunion. It was wonderful to meet Bill then and to share in his joy of taking pictures at the reunion and getting to meet all Marcella's classmates. Marcella and I have kept in touch through Christmas cards over the years and occasional phone calls and visits in SD. Please give her a hug for me.

*Dear Marcella and Family,
I just received an email from Denny and Sheryl informing us of the passing of your husband. I want to express our sympathy to you and assure you of our prayers for strength and comfort as you go through the next days and beyond. I always think of you fondly when I remember our high school years.
Ken and I are doing well -- just getting older.
