

William H. Hatfield

June 15, 2012

William H. Hatfield, 85, passed away June 15, 2012 at his home in Orange Park, Florida. He was a retired electrician with TARC, and a catholic. He is survived by his wife of 62 years, the former Mary Berry, daughter Cheryl Hatfield McClellan (Jerry), Grandsons Anthony M. (Melissa) and Brian J. McClellan and three great grandson Connor J. and Micah B McClellan and Joseph Hawkins. Funeral service Wednesday 11 A.M. at Owen Funeral Home 5317 Dixie Highway with burial in Evergreen Cemetery. Visitation will be Tuesday at 4 P.M. until 8 P.M. Donations to American Cancer Society

Tribute Wall

JW

“ Dear Mary, Cheryl & Family,
I am sorry for your loss and pray for you as you grieve. I am a second cousin of Billy's but I am sorry to say that I am sure you do not know me as my parents divorced when I was about 5 and was not around my dad's family much. My Dad was named Hassell Hatfield and his Dad was Vesey. I remember daddy taking me to see Uncle Elmore when I was little but not much. I am not able to drive right now as I got a fall and had to have a shoulder replacement, therefore I will not be able to attend the visitation. I will be thinking of you. May God be with you.
Love,
Judy Hatfield Warden

Judy Hatfield Warden - June 28, 2018 at 04:14 PM