

William Joseph Berger

July 23, 1943 - May 6, 2024

William Joseph Berger of Louisville, Kentucky, passed away peacefully on May 6, 2024, after a brief debilitating illness.

Bill was the son of the late Walter and Elizabeth (Hetterman) Berger. After graduating from DeSales High School and enlisting in the Air Force, he married his school sweetheart, Linda Roelandt, and built a family with their son and daughter.

After leaving the Air Force and returning to Louisville, Bill graduated from United Electronics Institute, and began a career at Honeywell. Retiring from Honeywell after decades of service, he continued work as an independent contractor. In his later years, he enjoyed traveling and cruising, enlarging and enhancing the lake house (calling it his "Happy Place"), along with his newest woodworking hobby of turning bowls on the lathe.

He is survived by his wife of 62 years, Linda; children, Michael Berger (Deborah) and Janet Warren (James); grandchildren, Steven Warren (Kingsley), Elizabeth Berger, Andrea Hill (Brad), and Scott Berger; six great-grandchildren; along with brothers Charles, David (Delores), and Robert.

In addition to his parents, Bill was preceded in death by his brother Walter Jr.
