“ Mike, was one of my favorite's because he looked so much to me like his father who as a teenager I adore. I have known the Campbell's since I was about 10 yrs old(that's about 60 years ago) They were always a close knit family. I always enjoyed spending the night they made me feel part of their family. I know their heart is breaking and its hard to think he is in a better place and with his parents now and not with you. Mike rest in Peace now and also to all of you in his passing may you find Peace. God Bless! Ar"della" & Mo Moberley
