“ So very sorry for your loss. I knew Terry for 39 years and He has blessed those around him all those years. You could see Jesus in Terry. He loved God, Anita, and he loved and adored his kids and grandkids, His sister and brothers, His Church and His friends. He always had a smile and a cute joke or story to tell. And he and Anita used to take me to church and back. I have been praying for the Moore family and will continue too. May God Bless You All
