“ So many wonderful memories that it's hard to pick one, as we traveled together in the van from coast to coast over the years after our kids were grown. A wrong turn helped us discover the Elephant Trunk Rock near the Wisconsin Dells. A trip thru Kansas took us to the best ever Wizard of Oz museum. We kept in close touch even when not traveling; eating out, flea markets, sharing pics of cool cars we saw online.

Keith, Brenda and Chris have been our best friends for over 40 years, and his memory will live forever in our hearts. Every time we hear “What a Wonderful World”, we will stop and remember when...
