“ Ruth: So sorry to hear about Winston's passing - didn't find out until late Friday. I rode the beat at the old Leonhardt's store in the mid 60's...knew and like him well. I'll be in touch with you in the coming weeks. Bob & Lee Whitaker, retired LPD. 502-599-3669.

“ Ruth,

Pat and I were so sorry to read about Winston's passing. Newspapers were not read until this morning because we were just getting over the funeral for my mother Mary Lanning, who previously lived on Anna a block away from you. Both of their obituaries appear on the same page.

Winston was instrumental in supporting the Cloverleaf neighborhood for many years. He and I had a great working relationship during the formation and with neighborhood projects in later years. He will be missed by many. I'm sorry that I wasn't able to attend his funeral.

We will keep you and our family in our prayers.

“ Many precious memories surround my relationship with the Wilson family reaching back over 40 years. My family was always treated royally by the Wilsons. We had so much fun. We all worked together for the Lord,
I saw these sweet girls grow up to be fine ladies.
In my older years, they still treat me as one of the family. I'm still Brother Charlie.
I regret Windton's passing and wish for you the best Rurh and girls.
My prayers are with you.
Call on me any time I may help.
Again, I apologize for NOT getting to visit Winston at Baptist East. My day was so filled with previopus engagements that I had planned to come Thursday, but GHod had other plans.
Know that I love you all and I appreciate your aasking me to have a part in his Memorial service.
Brother Charlie and Jedannie (419-3861 Cell,

“ We are sad to learn of Mr. Wilson's passing. He always brought laughter into our office when he came for closings along with Tootsie Roll Pops for the girls,(and Bob too, if he complained about being left out).

Our deepest sympathy to all of the Wilson family, and to Rebecca, whom I have grown to know and love over the years.

You are in our thoughts and prayers at this time.

Sincerely,

Bob & Brenda Salyers & all of us at
